

BLACK HISTORY MATTERS

WINDHAM/WILLIMANTIC NAACP PRESENTS

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

BLACK SOLDIERS FROM THE CT 29TH COLORED REGIMENT IN THE CIVIL WAR

*Bring history alive in your classroom with a performance of Pvt.
William Webb, a black soldier in the CT 29th Colored Regiment in the Civil War Presented by Kevin Johnson, from the archives and genealogy unit*

Knowing the past opens the door to the future

WINDHAM NAACP CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

windhamctnaacp.org

We will provide booking arrangements, preparation and follow-up materials including:

- Essential and guiding questions for class discussions
- Activities and lessons about the Civil War, Black and Native American Soldiers, and relevant connections to current events
- Panel discussion with descendants and NAACP members of our Speakers Bureau